

Sense quiz

Can you name three of the five senses?

Which sense do you use when you are eating?

Which two senses do you use when watching a movie?

Can you think of three words that describe things that you can touch?

What part of the body do you smell with?

Which sense provides you with the most information out of all the senses?

Can you think of three words that describe things that you hear?

There are five main types of taste. Can you name two?

Answers

Any three of the following: taste, smell, sight, hearing and touch

Taste

Sight and hearing

Words such as soft, hard, fluffy, rough, spiky etc.

Nose

Sight – two thirds of information you receive comes from your eyes

Words such as loud, quiet, roar, bang, whisper etc.

Main types are bitter, sour, salty, sweet and umami